

Please, keep the rules in place that promote public ownership of the radio and not private. Without public radio we move far from our freedoms and into a very restrictive world. I plead with you to vote to keep the airwaves open to the public.